FLORIDA INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES

REL 5331 – RELIGIONS OF INDIA
FALL 2013, TR 930-1045 and R 11-1215

Professor Katz
DM 305A
Nathan.katz@fiu.edu / 7-3909
Hours: T 11-12 and R 1230-2.

REL 5331 is a research seminar. This means we will decide on an issue or theme in modern Hinduism, and each seminar student will conduct research into her/his topic and present it in stages during the semester.

All students will do all readings and attend all REL 3330 lectures (TR 930-2045), take exams and quizzes, and participate in all seminar meetings.

Additionally, seminar members are required to attend special events pertaining to the religions of India, details TBA.

The themes and topics will be decided collectively during the first seminar meeting.

8-29 Introductions, selecting research themes.
9-5 No seminar meeting
9-12 Selecting research topics.
9-19 Library training
9-26 Library training.
10-3 Group discussion: What is modern Hinduism?
10-10 Reports
10-17 Reports
10-24 Reports
10-31 Reports
11-7 Reports
11-14 Reports
11-21 Reports
11-28 No seminar meeting
12-5 Wrap-up