   - 25%......Essay
   - 15%......Final Exam
   - 10% ...Class Participation and Attendance

Assignments: There will be a group research paper, a group site visit and group presentation, an essay, and a final exam... All papers should be double space with 12’ font.

Group Research Paper: Students will be divided into groups, and each group will be assigned a particular religion. Then, each group will write a 7-9 page group research paper about the particular religion. The final draft (one from each group) will be submitted to Turnitin.com by the group leaders only; each group member will be given the same grade as their group leader. The students may use any academic style, as long as the usage is consistent.

Group Site Visit and Presentation: Each group will visit a religious site from the assigned religion, observe that religious community, and then give an oral presentation on that religious community in the class. This presentation should compare/contrast your research and your site visit.

Essay: Each student will choose any topic that is associated with the oppression/liberation of Women (abortion, fair-wages, equal treatment) and write a 7-9 page critical paper highlighting how religion may contribute to this treatment. The student may use any academic style, as long as the usage is consistent. This paper will be submitted to Turnitin.com and individually graded.

Final Exam will be on the material covered in class: lectures and readings. The exam will consist of definition of terms, fill in the blanks and essays.

Academic Information and Class Policy:
Plagiarism is literary theft and is defined as the use, without proper acknowledgements, of the ideas, phrases, sentences, or larger units of discourse from another writer or speaker. This includes material found on the Internet. Plagiarism includes the unauthorized copying of software and the violation of copyright laws. Plagiarism will result in an F on the paper and likely in the class as well. It is also grounds for expulsion from the university.
Cheating is defined as the attempt, successful or not, to give or obtain aid and/or information by illicit means in meeting any academic requirements, including examinations. Cheating includes falsifying reports and documents. Cheating on exams will result in zero awarded to both papers (so keep your paper covered).

Attendance: Class attendance and class participation are ways to receive extra credit. Also, some materials will inevitably be covered in class that are not in the textbooks. In addition, your grade will be lowered a letter if you have more than three unexcused absences.

Incomplete Grades: An Incomplete grade is to be given only to the student who has been regularly attending class and has completed most of the class work, but has a serious emergency at the end of the term.

Internet: You are encouraged to use the Internet- although, you must be careful and thoughtful when interpreting the data found on the web sites. Remember, the sites with the word “gov/ edu/ org” or usually good sites. This information will be covered further during visit to the library.
