Colonialism, Christianity and Globalization
Since Las Casas to Pope Francisco
World Christianity in the Modern World (1500-2000)

Professor: Ana Maria Bidegain

INTRODUCTION

Colonialism, Christianity and Globalization (1500-2000) will analyze the European expansion in the 15th and 16th centuries and the interrelation between religion, economic and politics in western and colonial societies. This course includes the early Catholic missionary expansion as well Protestant and Pentecostal expansion in the 19th and 20th centuries in Africa, Asia and Latin America. The course analyzes contemporary history of Christianity in the Southern continents and its interplay with the globalization process from an eco-feminist perspective. Its emphasis is on the transition of Christianity from a western to a world religion in the 19th and 20th centuries, focusing on the cultural, social and political impact of the Christian Churches’ activities.

JUSTIFICATION

Christian History has generally been defined by a Western perspective and as a Western History. An essential factor for understanding the process of globalization is the role of world religions. Christianity has a broader and more global history is generally understood. Understanding the global aspect of Christianity is necessary in order to fully comprehend the transformations of the 21st century and the role of religion and its interplay with the economic, social, cultural and political realm. The shift of the numerical bulk of Christians from Europe and North America to Asia, Africa, Latin America and other areas outside the Northern Hemisphere has had more than demographic significance because it is shaping a new Christianity that is impacting the Northern societies and transforming the basic cultural background of these societies.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1) A better understanding of the interplay of Religion, Politics and Economics in the Modern and Contemporary Society.

2) A comprehension on the importance of Christian churches’ role in the colonization and acculturation process of Southern Regions of the world and the development of globalization.

3) A knowledgeable understanding why Christianity is any more a Western Religion.

GOALS AND STUDENT OUTCOMES

After completing the course, students should be able to have a new comprehension of contemporary Christianity and be aware how much it has evolved and has become more than just a Western Religion. They will understand how Christianity has been related to the Western colonization process and at the same time how it has brought a critical understanding of the role of Christianity in world’s societies. Students will also become knowledgeable about the interplay between religion socio-economic, political as well as cultural reality; they will be able to analyze the role of Christianity in the birth and development of globalization process. The class will be taught from an eco-feminist perspective.

In order to reach the general learning objectives, students will have weekly goals, outcomes and assessments that will measure their knowledge and each unit’s comprehension. (Please, look at the calendar, below) The students should be able to develop a critical analysis on the interplay of Christianity and Colonialism shaping globalization presenting a final paper.

EXPECTATION OF THIS COURSE

This is a fully online course, meaning that all course work (100%) will be conducted online. Expectations for performance in fully online courses are the same as for traditional courses; in fact, fully online courses require a degree of self-motivation, self-discipline, and technology skills that can make them more demanding for some students.

Fully online courses are not independent study courses. You will be expected to interact online with the professor and your fellow students; to do assignments; to meet deadlines; and develop and present your research paper. In some fully online courses, you may be required to come to campus to take midterms and exams, but in most like this one, you will take your tests online. In the course content portion of blackboard, power-point notes on some of the topics are posted. Also some required readings are posted in this portion of blackboard. Power points are not substitutes for readings. The readings and the Power Points are mutually complementing. Students need to be familiar with the material from both sources if they expect to do well in this course.

This is an online course, meaning that most of the course work will be conducted on-line

TIPS FOR SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETION OF THIS COURSE

- Follow up all on-line classes
- Read all the required reading for each class session.
- Present all required written papers by the dead line.
- Log into the course information to check Course Mail every day.
- Start your essays early.
- Communicate with me through Blackboard with any questions or concerns you have
- Utilize FIU’s academic resources and services; be proactive!

ASSESSMENTS (DISCUSSION BOARD AND WRITTEN PAPER ASSIGNMENTS)

DISCUSSION BOARD
Each week, students have to participate in an online discussion board on each week’s religious concepts and contents founded on the reading and the professor’s presentation. You can upload your comments any time during the week until Sunday at midnights. The professor will grade students’ contributions the following week.

WRITTEN PAPERS AND SEMINAR MEETINGS THROUGH ADBOBE_CONNECT

Students must develop a final research paper in three stages:

1. First paper: Due the forth week
   This paper must present: a) The justification and interest on the topic selected -among a list proposed by the professor-, to be developed into a final paper b) the particular aspects, problems, research questions that will be analyzed and c) list of principal sources to be used to develop this paper. It will be presented and discussed to the seminar through a special first paper discussion board. (1/30 until 2/6)
   It has to be uploading through Turnitin Assignments no later than February 8 to be graded by the professor.

2. Second paper: Due on the eighth week.
   It is a continuation of the first, with a deeper analysis of the sources, (primary sources, bibliography, articles and book chapters) that will be used and a further development toward the final paper.
   It will be discussed in the seminar through a special second paper discussion board (02/28-03/5)
   It has to be uploaded through Turnitin Assignments no later than March 7 to be graded by the professor.

3. Third and Final 15/20 pages paper:
   It will be discussed in the seminar through a special Third paper discussion board. (04/17-04/23) 15th Week
   It has to be uploaded through Turnitin Assignments no later than May 2 to be graded by the professor.

Requirements for all written work:
All written work must be typed, double-spaced, and in 12 point font (written work submitted in large font will not be acceptable); and any citations should follow MLA format. https://www.library.cornell.edu/research/citation/mla
These papers must be submitted by the deadline.

The Final Grade will be determined by a total of points scored throughout the semester. These points will be converted into percentages [that is, points scored by student/total number of points [200] x 100]. Please keep printed copies of all assignments and graded material. If you cannot produce your class material in a grade dispute, the grade recorded in the instructor’s grade book will take precedent. Students are required and responsible for all assigned text readings and material from Blackboard. Students are expected to check the Announcement and Assignment sections of Blackboard for this class at least every other day. Students who take this course are expected to have the skills necessary to complete all assignments. Essay Assignments must not be sent as attachments to the professor. They must be posted in the Assignment drop box. I will not grade them if you send them to me as attachments. If you have computer technology questions during the semester, you should contact the FIU Computer Help Desk.

Note: I reserve the right to alter this syllabus if and whenever necessary.

COMMUNICATION WITH THE INSTRUCTOR

E-MAIL
All students are expected to use their FIU e-mail address/account for course correspondence. You are expected to check your FIU e-mail at least every other day for the duration of this course.
Please remember you can also see me requesting an appointment through BLACKBOARD email.

ACADEMIC AND CLASSROOM MISCONDUCT

Students are expected to conduct themselves appropriately at all times. Behavior defined by the instructor as disruptive will not be tolerated. For a Web class, the above statement includes flaming, which is writing or sending inappropriate messages to the web areas of this course. All interaction with your instructor and your fellow students is expected to be appropriate. If any activity becomes disruptive, the instructor reserves the right to take appropriate action. In addition, if a student turns in an assignment where the authorship is questionable (plagiarism), the instructor reserves the right to discuss this situation with the student, and if she/he is not satisfied that the assignment is the work of that student, a grade of "0" will be assigned.
