Course Description

Ever since the beginning of humanity’s existence on Earth, religion has been a singularly powerful influence on the lives of a vast majority of its occupants, and it seems likely that it will remain so for as far into the future as our minds can project. While there are some who view religion as a singularly powerful means for promoting goodness and morality in the world, there are others who see it as the source of most of the hatred and violence in the world. Whatever one’s opinion, however, it is incumbent upon all of us today to develop a familiarity with a number of the World’s major religions, so that we may be better able to understand our neighbors in what, today, is an enormously complex, interdependent, and global world.

This course will introduce students to some of the World’s major and most enduring religious traditions – both Eastern and Western – by exploring their basic beliefs, practices, rituals, associated narratives, and relevant figures.

Course Objectives

By the end of this course, the successful student will be able to:

- Analyze the differences and similarities between the religions studied.
- Analyze the historical development of the religious traditions presented.
- Compare and contrast religious societies and cultures in their local, national, and global context.
- Recognize the different ways of being religious and of interpreting the sacred.
- Appreciate the importance that the various religious traditions discussed throughout the semester hold for their practitioners.

Textbook:

Other required readings will be in the form of handouts, which the professor will distribute to you at various times during the course of the semester, or they will be posted on the Library Course Reserves.

Attendance and Class Participation

Fifteen percent of your final grade depends on regular attendance and class participation. Attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class. Regular attendance and punctuality are expected of all. Only one unexcused absence will go without penalty. Any additional unexcused absence beyond that will cause a drop of one rung on the final grading scale, i.e., from an A to an A-, an A- to a B+, and so on. Lateness, particularly if it is disruptive and/or habitual, will have a similar negative impact on your grade. If you will be unable to attend a particular class, you are expected to inform the professor beforehand via e-mail or telephone and explain your reason.

You are all expected to come to class prepared to discuss the assigned reading material, to present your ideas to the class, and to ask questions.

NOTE: The professor reserves the right to modify the course syllabus at any time. Students will receive verbal notification of any modifications, should they be made.
