For a person who has conquered his lower self by the divine self, his own self acts as his best friend. But for that person who has not conquered his lower self, his own self acts as his worst enemy.

Bhagavad Gita

In ancient times there were great Taoist Sages.

Their way of living was so deep, so subtle, it cannot be directly explained. Instead, here is how they looked:

Cautious, as if crossing the ford of a stream in Winter

Alert, as if surrounded by danger

Polite, as if they were always a guest Yielding, like ice that is on the verge of melting

Sincere, like an uncut block of wood Receptive, like a valley

Opaque, like muddy water.

Tao Te Ching

Course Description and Purpose

This Hybrid Gordon Rule comparative religion course examines the world’s major eastern and western religions, both ancient and contemporary. From historical, psychological, sociological, anthropological, and archeological perspectives they reveal their mysteries. The religious beliefs, rituals, practices, creation stories, scriptures, myths and spiritual leaders of indigenous peoples, Hinduism, Buddhism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, and the New Age are studied with an eye toward understanding the similarities and differences between them.

Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

1. Recognize the key underlying beliefs and principles of the major Eastern and Western religions.
2. Compare and contrast the major similarities and differences between Eastern and Western religions, including cultural and historical contexts, as well as local, national, and/or international contexts (Global Perspective).
3. Analyze the evolution and movement of religious beliefs from ancient to contemporary times.
4. Explore the early bases and origins of religion among Indigenous Peoples and Shamanic cultures.
5. Respond sensitively to the issue of religious diversity in national and international context (Global Engagement).
6. Examine issues in the field of religious studies from multiple approaches.
7. Correlate economic, sociological, anthropological, archeological, psychological, scientific, historical and theological principles in studying religions.
8. Evaluate the interrelationship between his/her own and others’ religious views as they relate to understanding other cultures and solving common problems (Global Awareness).
9. Analyze religious scriptures and writings from different religions and cultures.
10. Develop a personal learning process and plan required for his/her success in this religious studies course.

The Wind is My Mother by Bear Heart

You may purchase your textbook online at the FIU Bookstore (Links to an external site.).
Expectations of this Course

This is a hybrid online course, which means part of the course work will be conducted online and part in class. Expectations for performance in a hybrid online course are the same for a traditional course. In fact, hybrid online courses require a degree of self-motivation, self-discipline, and technology skills which can make these courses more demanding for some students. If you find that you are having difficulty keeping up with the out-of-class work, please make an appointment with or email me.

You are responsible for carefully reading the syllabus and weekly calendar, meeting deadlines as posted, and submitting mature, thoughtful work. Some of this material may be new, personal, or controversial, so please maintain an open-minded and considerate attitude, allowing others time to reflect and communicate. The online portion of the class is required and constitutes the online attendance. Please review additional expectations below.

As a student in this course, you are expected to:

- Review the how to get started information located in the course content.
- Introduce yourself to the class during the first week in the appropriate discussion forum.
- Take the practice quiz to ensure that your computer is compatible with Canvas.
- Interact online with instructor/s and peers.
- Log in to the course 3-4 times per week.
- Respond to Canvas Messages within 1 day.

As the instructor, I will:

- Log in to the course at least 6 days per week
- Respond to Canvas Messages within 1 day
- Grade assignments within 14 days of the assignment deadline
Textbook and Readings

Students are expected to keep up with coursework and be prepared for each class by making sure they have read all the materials for that class and turned in any assignments on time.

Attendance

Regular attendance is required to pass this course on in-class days. Students are to arrive on time and stay until the class period is over. If you need to leave early, discuss with me before class. Repeated tardiness is counted as an absence for that day. This is 5% of your grade and is calculated by the percentage of times present and absent. However, if you miss more than three classes, a greater percentage is deducted. The 5% Attendance grade is for regular attendance but missing too many of the classes in the course is not acceptable and leads to failure. Much of the in-class portion of the course is based on lecture, discussion, and participation, and not just taking quizzes or turning in papers.

Respect, Courtesy, and Communication

- It is the student’s responsibility to be attentive, respectful, keep up with the work, and hand in assignments on time.
- Cell phones must be turned off during class. There will be no texting or leaving class to take a telephone call.
- There is no surfing or social media on computers in class! Computers are only used for taking notes!
- If a student is having any difficulties with the assignments, readings, papers, tests, punctuality, attendance, or medical issues, they should speak to the professor before it becomes a problem. Good communication will always lead to a successful resolution of the issue.

Religious Holidays

By university policy, students must notify the instructor at least two weeks in advance that he/she wishes to observe a religious holy day. The student will be excused from class without penalty. The student is still responsible for the material and will be given a reasonable amount of time to make up any work missed after discussion with the instructor.

Behavioral Misconduct

Any student who is subject to sexual harassment, stalking, physical or verbal abuse should immediately speak to the instructor. The university has policies to protect students in these instances and the instructor will immediately refer the student to the appropriate program or resource.

Course Communication
All Email and messaging contact with the professor should be through Canvas email.

Discussion Forums

Keep in mind that your discussion forum postings will likely be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

Assessments

In order to mitigate any issues with your computer and online assessments, it is very important that you take the "Practice Quiz" from each computer you will be using to take your graded quizzes and exams. It is your responsibility to make sure your computer meets the minimum hardware requirements.

Assessments in this course are not compatible with mobile devices and should not be taken through a mobile phone or a tablet. If you need further assistance, please contact FIU Online Support Services.

Assignments

Weekly Research or Opinion Questions

You will be presented with a weekly question or topic to research out of class. Turn in your answer before the next class meeting.

Quizzes

Students will take fifteen online chapter quizzes, one Writing Rules Quiz: Multiple Choice, Matching, Fill-in-the-blank and True/False. Exams will be based upon both lecture and textbook material (about a 50-50 ratio), so passing will require regular attendance, taking good notes, and reading the textbook. It is not recommended that you take the quizzes as an open book test as they are time limited and you will not have time to look up material and answer all the questions.

Team Discussion/Participation
This is 10% of your grade. Students are expected to actively participate in class by making relevant comments and asking and answering questions. It is mandatory that students participate in the three Team Discussion Forums: the Movie, the Bear Heart Book, and the Jerusalem Case Study. A minimum of three substantive, thoughtful comments (at least 50 words/5 lines each) is required for each assignment. Doing the minimum earns you a C (75%); anything more brings a higher grade, as long as the comments are substantive and thoughtful.

Keep in mind that forum discussions are public, and care should be taken when determining what to post. If you need to send a private message to an instructor or student, please use Canvas email. Your Participation Grade is determined primarily by your participation in the three Team Discussion Forums.

Movie Essay

Think, Pair, Share and One 750 Word Opinion Essay: Each Team will watch one of these movies, as assigned below, participate in a group discussion on the movie, and write an essay. Follow these instructions: Explain, discuss, and analyze the themes of the movie, the spiritual and religious traditions, and how the story affected you. Do not retell the whole story for me, although you will need to refer to plot, storyline and characters from time to time. Analyze! Compare what you have learned about other religions and religious practices to discuss common themes and similarities or significant differences.

1. Dances with Wolves (Kevin Costner, Graham Greene)
2. The Last of His Tribe (Jon Voight, Graham Greene)
3. The Mission (Robert DeNiro, Jeremy Irons)
4. Thunderheart (Val Kilmer, Graham Greene)
5. Gandhi (Ben Kingsley)
6. Kundun (Martin Scorsese)
7. Schindler’s List (Liam Neeson)
8. The Education of Little Tree (Graham Greene, James Cromwell)
9. Whale Rider
10. The Passion of Christ (Jim Caviezel)
11. Monsoon Wedding
12. Five People You Meet in Heaven (Jon Voight)
13. The Gods Must Be Crazy (N!xau)

Your paper will not be accepted if you do not participate in the Team Discussion Forum. The paper should reflect some of your discussion points. If you use outside sources, you must cite according to MLA format and add a Works Cited page.

Case Study

Jerusalem—Sacred City or City of War? This is a two-essay process. Each essay is a minimum of 1000 words.
1. Essay 1 Research Paper covers Part I: This paper discusses the ancient and current history of the conflict. It goes into detail about the ancient history, then the situation beginning in the 19th Century, and finally since WWII. Discuss the socio-political situation as it currently stands, as well as the politics and background of the negotiating position of your Subteam. Include some of the key points of your Subteam's negotiating position. Why and how did you get there?

2. Essay 2 Peace Treaty Paper covers Parts II and III:
   1. In Part II describe in detail your Subteam's negotiating position, including key negotiating points, problems in the negotiations, how they were resolved, and what compromises you were willing to make.
   2. In Part III describe in detail the Peace Treaty Plan you and the Team developed as a resolution: boundaries, governance of Jerusalem, realistic implementation strategies. Include maps for clarity. Break down not only what the plan entails, but how will it be implemented. How realistic is it?

You must demonstrate significant participation in the discussion (three or more substantive comments/opinions) for your papers to be accepted. You must provide proof of your research with citations in the body of the text and a separate Works Cited page per MLA guidelines.

Extra Credit

The student may write one Extra Credit Essay (2%) from the following movie choices.

1. 500 Word Movie Review Essay on The Peaceful Warrior with Nick Nolte, or The Da Vinci Code with Tom Hanks, or Joshua with F. Murray Abraham and Tony Goldwyn. Explain and discuss the religious themes of the movie, the spiritual and religious traditions, how the story affected you, and what it means today.
2. 500 Word Movie Review Essay on Jesus Camp. Analyze the movie, especially what you liked/disliked about the religious training depicted and the larger issue of the separation of religion and state.
3. 500 Word Movie Review on Judgment at Nuremberg with Spencer Tracy, Marlene Dietrich. Explain and discuss the religious themes of the movie, the spiritual and religious traditions, how the story affected you, and what it means today.

COURSE GRADING RUBRICS

This is a Gordon Rule course with a three-paper written word requirement and you must attain at least a C to pass a Gordon Rule course. Under the Gordon Rule, FIU requires that student papers:
1. Have a clear thesis or controlling idea;
2. Have a thesis supported with adequate reasons and evidence
3. Be organized clearly and logically;
4. Show sustained analysis and critical thought;
5. Show knowledge of conventions of standard written English; and
6. Show awareness of disciplinary conventions in regard to content, style, form, and delivery method.

Each type of paper (opinion, research, and site visit) will be graded according to the following criteria.

OPINION ESSAY

- Knowledge of Subject Matter (25%)
  - Understanding: How well do understand the subject?
  - Clarity: How well did you explain, present, and discuss the topic? Will the reader understand what you are talking about?
  - Accuracy: How accurate are you with the facts and issues?

- Strength of Argument (30%)
  - Strong Thesis Statement: Is your Thesis Statement clear and to-the-point, and does it tell your audience exactly what the paper is about?
  - Rationale: Did you build your case logically and step-by-step?
  - Details/Examples: Did you give adequate details and provide useful examples to make and fill out your points?
  - Coverage: Did you cover the topic adequately enough to make the essential points?
  - Connections and Transitions: Did you provide good transitions from topic to topic and paragraph to paragraph.

- Strength of Organization and Structure (25%)
  - Outline: Did you outline the paper so it is organized and logical in its presentation?
  - Title: Did you provide a clear and interesting title?
  - Introduction: Did you provide a clear and interesting introductory paragraph that adequately introduces the essay? Is your Thesis Statement in the introduction?
  - Paragraphing: Do you understand how to paragraph and provide good transitions between paragraphs, that is, one paragraph should naturally lead into another.
  - Focus: Does your paper stay focused and on track?
  - Conclusion: Do you provide a clear summary and concluding paragraph that pulls the paper together and provides a logical conclusion to the subject?

- Strength of Grammar and Writing Style (20%)
  - Diction: Do you demonstrate good word choice, that is, use of the correct word?
Grammar: Do you demonstrate a good knowledge of the fundamentals of grammar?
Sentence Structure: Do you write solid sentences that are clear, concise and focused—not wordy, fragments, run on or overly complicated?
Interesting Style: Do you write in a way that interests the reader—variety of words, challenging ideas, vibrant language?
Glittering Generalities: Are your sentences too general and vague, or are they backed up with specific facts, examples and details?

RESEARCH PAPER

- Knowledge of Subject Matter (20%)
- Strength of Argument (25%)
- Strength of Organization and Structure (20%)
- Strength of Grammar and Writing Style (15%)
- Strength of Research (20%)
  - Strength of Sources: Did you provide the required reference sources? Remember that dictionaries, encyclopedias, atlases, Theopedia, and Wikipedia are not acceptable sources, nor are direct sources such as the Bible, the Quran, the Torah, and so on.
  - MLA: Did you follow MLA format?
  - Citation: Did you properly cite all the information sources in the body of the paper. Remember that anything that does not come from your own brain needs to be cited, that is, anyone else’s words, ideas, theories, concepts, comments, and so on that you quote, paraphrase, summarize.
  - Works Cited: Did you provide a separate and properly formatted Works Cited page?

FIELD SITE VISIT/RESEARCH PAPER

- Knowledge of Subject Matter (25%)
- Strength of Organization and Structure (15%)
- Strength of Grammar and Writing Style (15%)
- Strength of Research (15%)
- Strength of Reflection (15%)
  - Personal Background information: Did you discuss your own religious background and your reaction to the religious service you attended for your Site Visit?
  - Reflection: Do you provide personal information and insights that reflect an inner process of evaluation and how the subject applies to your life?
  - Personal Examples: When appropriate, do you mix in personal examples as you make your points throughout the paper?
• Strength of Interview (15%)
  o Interviewee: Did you identify the name and position of the person you talked to? Was the person you interviewed a good subject for the paper?
  o Questions: Did you ask well thought out, clear questions that adequately covered the topic?

We use The MLA Handbook for writing papers in this course. You must know how to perform parenthetical referencing to provide appropriate citations for your sources.

• Read Dr. Norris’ Excellent Tips for Writing Papers on Canvas to guide you in writing your essays. All written assignments are formal essays and should follow college essay format.
• All essay assignments will be turned in through Turnitin in Canvas Turnitin Assignments on the day they are due. There is a grade penalty of one grade decrease per day for late papers.
• You may write more than the minimum word requirement, but not less without penalty.
In fact, most of your papers will need more than the minimum to adequately cover the topic and make your points.
• While there is a wealth of sound research information at your disposal on the Internet, there is a greater deal of dubious material, so please be discerning. Acceptable authorship includes individual, recognized experts, educational institutions (e.g. Institute of Reformation History, Stanford University), publicly supported national or international institutes (e.g. World Health Organization), and other well-known institutions with solid reputations (e.g. World Council of Churches). Go to http://www.wabashcenter.wabash.edu/resources/guide-headings.aspx for excellent religious studies sources. This site will also be posted on Canvas.
• Please take advantage of the (free) Writing Lab at the Center for Excellence in Writing that will provide you with someone to go over your papers for grammatical, format, and content issues before you hand it in.
