Course Description
What are the indigenous religious beliefs and practices of peoples of African descent? In what forms did they exist before slavery, colonialism and the arrival of Islam and Christianity in Africa? In what sense/s are Christianity and Islam in Africa African Religions? In what forms do African religious Expressions exist in modern times in Africa and the African Diaspora?
communities? This very intriguing course exposes students to the indigenous [African] foundations of the religious beliefs and practices of African communities living in Africa and the Diaspora. The course explores the theological ideas and the ritual forms especially of the Ashanti, Ga, Fon, Ewe, Ibo, Yoruba and Mende of West Africa, and the peoples of central, east and southern Africa. Because most of the Africans forced to migrate to the USA, and Caribbean and Latin America as slaves came from these regions this course will provide students with insights into the beliefs and practices of such African centered Caribbean and Latino religious traditions as Santeria [the lukumi tradition], Vodou, Candomble and some religious forms and expressions of African Americans in the USA. Topics to be covered in this course will include, sources of African Religious beliefs, African theological notions about God, African Religious beliefs about the nature of the human being and the universe, Witchcraft, sorcery and the problem of Evil in African religious thought and practice, Sin and salvation in African religious thought, Illness health and healing discourses and practices in African Religions, African Islam and African Christianity.
