Course Description and Purpose

This is a Gordon Rule class that serves as an introduction to the study of religion. The course explores the ways in which people understand and express religious experience. This course's scope includes the exploration of concepts such as deity, theodicy, cosmology, ritual, as well as religious social implications in society.

Throughout the course the student will also be exposed to specific rituals, myths, doctrines, ethics and symbols from various different world religions and cultures.

Course Objectives

Upon completing this course, students will be able to:

- Explain the basic history, development, and belief systems of various religious traditions
- Recognize religious themes and concepts found in other aspects of life
- Identify the meaning behind religious concepts
- Evaluate own religious views regarding other cultures and paradigms of religion
- Apply critical thinking to various topics in the field of religious studies
- Think creatively about religious issues in the contemporary
- Perform field research to better understand a particular religious community

COURSE POLICIES

Late Papers

Late submissions will NOT be accepted, except in cases of genuine and documented emergencies.

Avoid leaving assignment/quiz submissions for the last minute before a deadline. “Heavy user traffic” during this timeframe may cause delays and/or errors, which can lead to students missing crucial deadlines.
The instructor reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus by means of announcements or messages with ample time allowed for students to respond and adjust appropriately.

Assignment Submissions

All work has to be submitted through Canvas. Canvas does not allow instructors to submit on behalf of students. Please do not email your assignments to your instructor.

If you encounter errors or issues submitting an assignment, click on “Help” inside Canvas Course (located on the left-hand panel inside the course) and select Chat with Canvas Support (student). A live chat with Canvas support can fix the issue immediately.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Plagiarism, or attempting to pass off another's work as your own, falls into three different categories:

1. A written work that is entirely stolen from another source;
2. Using quotations from another source without properly citing them; and
3. Paraphrasing from another source without proper

Students are expected to understand the definition of plagiarism. See the University Code of Academic Integrity at http://www.fiu.edu/~oabp/misconductweb/2codeofacainteg.htm

Offenders will receive a grade of “F” for the plagiarized assignment, and possibly the course.

Students may not submit work from a previous semester or from another class for this assignment or any other assignment in this course. It will be flagged for plagiarism by Turnitin.

Extra Credit

Attending specific events or lectures for extra credit point.

Academic Conduct

- Plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in a zero. Plagiarism is 1) copying any written material without using proper citation – this includes material from the internet, our text and my notes; 2) incorporating another person’s ideas without giving proper credit/citation (literary theft). 3) Copying or “fixing up” a previous paper written by yourself or another student.
