COURSE DESCRIPTION

Examines the origins, teachings, and practices of selected world religions. The specific religions selected for examination may vary from semester to semester.

TEXTBOOKS

Lewis M. Hopfe, Mark R. Woodward, Religions of the World, 11th or 12th edition, 2012 [pagination in the syllabus follows the 12th edition exclusively].

Franklin Edgerton, Bhagavad Gita, Harvard University Press, 1972.

Lao Tzu, selections from the Tao te Ching (available on Blackboard).

FOR GLOBALIZATION QUESTION: Kwame Anthony Appiah, "The Case for Contamination" (available on Blackboard).

INSTRUCTIONAL OBJECTIVES

1. To provide the student with the "raw materials" for the study of religion by immersing the student in the beliefs, doctrines, rituals, symbols, and (select) scriptures of some of the major world religions.
2. To facilitate the informed cross-cultural comparison and evaluation of ways of being religious by focused study of select world religions.
3. To widen, enhance and enrich the intellectual and spiritual horizons of the student by exposure to the spiritual beauty, vitality, coherence, plausibility and richness of non-Christian, non-Western approaches to the transcendent or ultimate reality.
4. To challenge the student to enter sympathetically into the worldview of the religious traditions selected for study.
5. To provide the context for dialogue and discussion that will enable the student to live in an enormously complex, interdependent, and religiously plural world with patience, understanding, and appreciation for that which is different, and in some cases irreconcilably different, from his or her own "worldview."

UNIVERSITY REQUIREMENTS: GLOBAL LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Global Awareness: Students will be able to demonstrate knowledge of the interrelatedness of local, global, international, and intercultural issues, trends, and systems.
 - Course Learning Outcome: Students will demonstrate knowledge of the interrelated dynamics (social-cultural, political, economic, etc.) that shape the actions of multiple figures in diverse cultural contexts.

- Global Perspectives: Students will be able to develop a multi-perspective analysis of local, global, international, and intercultural problems.
 - Course Learning Outcome: Students will be able to analyze the multiple causal forces that shape the perspectives of historical individuals/persons — economic, political, sociological, technological, cultural, etc.
- Global Engagement: Students will be able to demonstrate a willingness to engage in local, global, international, and intercultural problem solving.
 - Course Learning Outcome: Students will demonstrate a willingness to engage in negotiation regarding actions of global import within the context of the class simulation.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

As a Gordon Rule course, written assignments are required of all students in order to fulfill the State-mandated standards for this course. The Gordon Rule requirement will be met by four (4) writing assignments (see below): a midterm essay exam, a final essay exam, a site visit report, and the globalization question.

Note about the assignments: Students will have two (2) attempts, with highest score being the final score, on all the objective assessments (quizzes and exams). For the written assignments, the instructor will post the questions two (2) weeks before the essays are due on Blackboard. That is, students will have two weeks to write all the written exams, including the globalization question.

1. Objective Mid-Term Exam, on Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, and Sikhism: 50 questions, 2-hour time limit (20 % of final grade).
2. Midterm Essay Exam, Two (2) essays, two (2) pages each, on questions provided by instructor: 15% of final grade)
3. Objective Final Exam, on Judaism, Christianity and Islam: 50 questions (20% of final grade).
4. Final Essay Exam: Two (2) essays, two (2) pages each, on questions provided by instructor: (15% of final grade).
5. Quiz #1, on Hinduism and Buddhism: 20 questions (10% of final grade).
6. Quiz #2, on Chinese Religions (Taoism and Confucianism): 20 questions (10% of final grade).
7. Site Visit (4-5 pages in length, double-spaced, 12 pt. font) (10% of final grade).
Site Visit Format and Short Directory of Religious Sites of South Florida are found at the end of the syllabus. Site visit reports will be staggered throughout the semester if necessary based on alphabetical order (last name of students). That is, the due dates will not be the same for all students, with some site visits due the 5th week, others the 10th week, to make it easy for the teaching assistants to grade reports in a timely manner.
8. Globalization Question (essay format): students will write an essay (minimum of 2 pages, double-spaced, 12 pt. font) on Kwame Anthony Appiah's "The Case for Contamination" (5% of final grade).

EXTRA CREDIT: EXTRA CREDIT

During the course of the term, there will various extra credit opportunities available to the student. You will earn one (1) point towards the final grade, based on 100 points. So if you attend five (5) extra credit events, you will have earned five (5) whole points toward your final score total. Students will be allowed to earn up to 10 extra credit points. Proof of attendance to an extra credit event will be submitting a 3x5 index card, which will be collected by the professor and the Teaching Assistants (TAs) after the conclusion of the event (not before).

Only special lectures offered by the Religious Studies Department, Muslim World Studies Initiative, Middle East Studies Center, Judaic Studies, Institute of Asian Studies, and Center for Spirituality count toward extra-credit opportunities and will be announced in class and via email to all students.

THE OBJECTIVE EXAMS AND QUIZZES will be true/false, multiple choice, and the questions will be drawn from the required reading, lectures, and videos. Given this fact, it is important that the student make an effort to attend every class. All exams and quizzes are online. As explained above, students will have two (2) attempts for each of the objective assessments (quizzes and exams).

The midterm exam will consist of fifty (50) questions; the final exam will consist of one hundred (100) questions. The quizzes will be twenty (20) questions each. The final exam of one hundred (100) questions will not be comprehensive; it will cover only the material after the midterm exam (Judaism, Christianity, and Islam).

ALL WORK WILL BE DONE ONLINE AND SUBMITTED TO BLACKBOARD.

ALL EXAMS, QUIZZES, SITE VISIT REPORT, and the GLOBALIZATION ESSAY (that is, all class assignments) will be done ONLINE THROUGH MOODLE.

Name of site visited	Site location (complete address)
Sect/branch and/or subject	Phone number
Contact person (if any)	Hours of worship: Days and Times

1. Fundamental beliefs (important if you are visiting a sectarian group, and note differences in belief and practice from its parent group), and sources of authority or basis for the religion or sect (such as inspired scriptures, teachers, direct revelations, and the like). Specify both the religion and the sect or branch you have visited (e.g., Hindu temple [Shiva, Vishnu, Hare Krishna]; Synagogue [Orthodox, Reformed, Conservative]; Buddhist sect [Pure Land, Nichiren, Tibetan, Mahayana, Theravada] Islamic sect [Nation of Islam, Sunni, Shia], etc.).

2. Why is the religion here in South Florida, whose needs is the religion/sect meeting. Narrate the reasons for the appearance of sect in South Florida.

3. Describe art, symbols, images, cultic objects (including sacred scriptures, if of artistic or aesthetic merit) of the religion.

4. Distinctive dress, articles of clothing, of members and/or clergy of the religion you witnessed during visit. Inquire as to whether normally there is a distinctive dress, etc. in other locations. Include how much adaptation or concessions to "American" ways of worshipping you witnessed during your visit (for this you may also have to tap a knowledgeable person for information).

5. Forms of ritual, worship/liturgy, special ceremonies, particular/distinctive practices that you saw practice during your visit.

6. Major religious festivals or sacred days (and their dates and days during the year) celebrated in South Florida (and those elsewhere, such as in the country of origin of religion or where religion is strongest).

7. Describe how what you saw and heard impacted you; did visit enhance your appreciation for that particular religious faith and/or for religion in general; did you feel you were "worshipping"?; did anything strike you in a negative way?; what was the most positive result of your visit?

 Starred/boldfaced items should constitute the bulk of your report, what you should give priority to when you write your report. Also, it is important that you make an effort to enter sympathetically into the religion you will be visiting. You do not have to agree with what you see and hear, but you should make an effort to understand it. After your visit and as you write your report, you will have the opportunity to express your opinion about what you witnessed.
