OBJECTIVE

Twenty first century is the era of emergence of spirituality, Meditation & yoga. Students will explore the world of meditation and know the scientific base of spirituality. The course is geared to acknowledging the meditations and its historical background with an emphasis on Jain meditation and other traditions. The students shall also get an opportunity to learn the varied techniques of meditation & transformative practices. The course is theory & practice oriented, leaning towards better healthy living. It promotes individual health & wellbeing which encompasses the health & wellbeing of all living beings around us and the world.

READING MATERIAL

Required Course Book for the Undergraduate: Preksha Meditation: Theory and Practice (available on https://www.amazon.in (Links to an external site.))

Required Course Book for the Graduate: Mirror of the Self (available on https://www.amazon.in (Links to an external site.))

Apart from the afore-said course-books the articles from various sources will be made available online. The students are recommended to read the course book and articles before the class. Reading improves the class participation, which will be graded.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADES

- Summary of Discussion on Non-violence –10%
- Attendance and Summary of International Conference during 19-21 March 2021, (20%)
- 2 Class Test – 30 % (each 15%)
- Power-point presentation - 20%

- Term Paper – 20%
  Term paper has three options; one is based on interview, others without it.

1. Interview any authentic person of any religious tradition about their Meditation practice. Write the interview with added research, study & your analysis on the same subject. More will be discussed in the class.

Or
2. The student can select any two types of Meditation or Traditions of meditation for their research. The topic for the paper must receive the approval of the instructor before it is submitted.

Or

3. Term paper may be based on the study of any of the key-books suggested for extra reading in the class along with new research going on in the concerned field. The Key-books are: The Tao of Physics, Physics and Philosophy, Altered Trait, Spiritual Intelligence and The Power of Now etc.

For any of the above options write a detail research paper with references. Develop the term paper with a minimum of 8 pages and no more than 10 pages in length, excluding the bibliography or works cited page and the cover page. This paper is formal and must be typed, not hand-written, in Times New Roman, font size 12 and double spaced. The margins should be 1-inch on all sides. APA, MLA, and Chicago Manual Style will be accepted. According to the style of choice, the student is advised to include footnotes or endnotes. A more thorough explanation of the term paper will be given during class. The graduates are supposed to write the paper with minimum of 12 and no more than 15 pages in length along with submitting reviews on any of the two key-books.

ATTENDANCE/PARTICIPATION POLICY: Attendance and participation are very important to this course. Students are expected to participate in class discussions.
