

Middle East Studies Program

School of International and Public Affairs

Preserving the Faith: Cultural Assets among Shi'is in Soviet and Post-Soviet Tajikistan Lecture with Zahra Jamal, University of Chicago

Thursday, January 24, 2013 | 12:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | SIPA 125

Dr. Zahra N. Jamal is Senior Research Associate at the Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality and the Department of Political Science at the University of Chicago, where she directs the Civil Islam initiative. She is also Assistant Director of the Center for the Study of American Muslims at the Institute for Social Policy and Understanding. She was previously on the faculty at Harvard, MIT, and Michigan State University (MSU), and was also the Program Director of Central Asia and International Development at MSU. Dr. Jamal also serves as an ethnographic consultant to the U.S. Department of State, Aspen Institute, the Swiss Agency for Development and Cooperation, the Aga Khan Development Network, and USAID for projects on conflict resolution, gender equity, human rights, and civic engagement among Muslim communities in North America, Europe, and Central Asia. She received an M.A. and Ph.D. in Social Anthropology and Middle Eastern Studies from Harvard University, and a double B.A. in Islamic and Middle Eastern Studies and in Slavic Studies from Rice University.

Co-sponsored by His Highness Prince Aga Khan Shia Imami Ismaili Council for Florida and Department of Religious Studies.

The lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, please call 305-348-1792.