"Voices of Feminist Liberation: The History and Future of Women and Religion"

Center for Humanities in an Urban Environment

This lecture by one of the world's leading feminist theologians will discuss the past, present and future of scholarship and activism in the realm of women, gender, and religion. Rosemary Radford Ruether is the Carpenter Emerita Professor of Feminist Theology at Pacific School of Religion and the GTU, as well as the Georgia Harkness Emerita Professor of Applied Theology at Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary. She has enjoyed a long and distinguished career as a scholar, teacher, and activist, and is well known as a groundbreaking figure in Christian feminist theology.

This event is cosponsored by FIU's Department of Religious Studies, the FIU Barnes and Noble Bookstore as well as the below programs and organizations.

Featuring
Rosemary Radford Ruether, PhD
Professor of Feminist Theology, Claremont School of Theology, Claremont, California

Tuesday March 19th, 2013
6-8 PM
FIU Barnes & Noble Bookstore

Light refreshments will be served.
Dr. Ruether’s books will be available for purchase.