Socio-Ecclesial Liberation Movements of Latin America: History and Continuity (1968-2018)

Thursday, September 28, 2017 | 9:00 AM - 12:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 442
2:00 PM - 5:30 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 220
Friday, September 29, 2017 | 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM | FIU Modesto A. Maidique Campus | GL 220

Jesus' ethical framework focused on love for the poor. This symposium explores the Latin American social and religious movements of the twentieth century that followed this ethical framework and led to the boom in Liberation Theology during the 1970s. Its final objective is to build a hemisphere-wide digital archive encompassing all these movements.

An international group of researchers, including pioneering voices of the generation, will be moderated by Ana María Bidegain, FIU, and include:

Gustavo Gutiérrez, Univ. of Notre Dame (Via Skype)

Edgar R. Beltrán Acosta, Pastoral Theologian

Peter Casarella, Univ. of Notre Dame
