

INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL FOR JAIN STUDIES

14TH SUMMER JAIN STUDIES IN INDIA

June 08th - July 06th, 2018

4 Week Program in Delhi, Aligarh and Jaipur, INDIA

Join the 14th annual International Summer School for Jain Studies (ISSJS) in India that focuses on the religious and cultural traditions of Jainism. This program provides academic and experiential knowledge of Jainism to encourage participants to pursue further studies and research in Jain principles of soul, non violence, non absolutism, non possession, self restraint and strenuous efforts in pursuit of spiritual uplift and relevance in today's life.

This four week intermediate level program is designed for third and fourth year undergraduate students, graduate students, degree holders, PhD candidates, Professors, and faculty in Religion, Philosophy, South Asian studies and Anthropology and other related subjects (history, art, music, public health, bio-ethics, education, management etc.) who desire to learn about Jainism.

PROGRAM INCLUDES TRANSFERABLE 3 CREDIT UNITS

- Immersion into Jain philosophy and culture in India
- Lectures by area specialists / scholars
- Interaction with Jain monks and nuns
- Relevant site visits and field trips
- Group Discussions amongst participants

PROGRAM FEE $700 USD*

Fee Includes: twin shared rooms with fan and swamp cooler, Jain vegetarian meals and inland travels associated with the program.

*Airfare to and from India, Tourist Visa and Insurance costs are the responsibility of the participant

ROLLING ADMISSION
APPLICATION DEADLINE: MARCH 1st, 2018

For Further Details & Application forms, Please visit www.isjs.in

CONTACT US:

International School for Jain Studies

D-28, Panchsheel Enclave, New Delhi—110 017, India

Email: admission@isjs.in; isjs_india@yahoo.co.in; shuganjain1941@gmail.com

Website: www.isjs.in