Course Policies

Midterm
The midterm (20%) will consist of a combination of multiple-choice questions, true and false questions, and a matching section. The midterm focuses on the first half of the semester, which will be Native American Religions, Shinto, Hinduism, and Buddhism.

Bring a number 2 pencil
No Make Ups

Final
The final (20%) will consist of a combination of multiple-choice questions, true and false questions, and a matching section. The final is non-cumulative and will cover material covered after the midterm exam, which will be Zoroastrianism, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam.

Bring a number 2 pencil
No Make Ups

Site Visit
Students will turn in a site visit paper worth (20%) of the overall grade. Students will attend a religious service from a religion that is not their own and write a formal report on the experience. The students will be emailed more detailed instructions and a list of suggested places during the first week of school. The paper will be submitted to www.turnitin.com.

Term Paper
Students will turn in a term paper worth (15%) of the overall grade. The term paper is a research assignment on a topic relating to the course that particularly interests the student. The topic for the paper must receive the approval of the instructor before it is submitted. The term paper must be a minimum of 8 pages and no more than 10 pages in length, excluding the bibliography or works cited page and the cover page. This paper is formal and must be typed, not hand-written, in Times New Roman font size 12 and double-spaced. The margins should be 1-inch on all sides. APA, MLA, and Chicago Manual Style will be accepted. According to the style of choice, the student is advised to include footnotes or endnotes. The students will be emailed more detailed instructions during the first week of class. This paper will also be submitted to www.turnitin.com.

Essay Examination
Students will be given a take home essay exam during the semester, which will be worth (15%). The essay exam is a formal paper that must be typed in Times New Roman font size 12 and double-spaced. The students must answer a series of questions and submit the answers to www.turnitin.com. The questions and extra reading material will be emailed a couple of weeks before the due date.

Attendance
Attendance is (10%) of the student’s grade. The student is allowed three absences for the semester without being penalized. Any absence after the three allowed ones will result in points being deducted from the student’s final grade. Attendance is strongly advised since the professor uses outside knowledge and material to supplement the book and make the lectures more complete. The attendance grade also includes lateness and conduct in class. Those students who talk excessively, constantly enter and leave the classroom due to phone calls, text message continuously, listen to their ipods during lectures, and play on their laptops during class time will have their attendance score marked down.
Cell phones must be set to silent mode

Extra Credit (Movie Review)
Students will pick a movie with a religious theme from a list that will be emailed during the first week of class and answer certain questions according to the movie chosen. The student is able to earn a total of 5 points to their lowest grade. The movies are placed on reserve on the 5th floor of the Green Library under the name Professor Botello. They can also be found on Netflix or your local video store. This assignment will also be submitted to www.turnitin.com.
