COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will analyze in a critical and analytical fashion, religions of Asia. The course will mainly explore Hinduism, Buddhism and Jainism. It will also go over Confucius and Daoist philosophy. The course is geared towards a philosophical discussion of the Asian religion. The course will assist in enriching the students with the nature of Asian religions being intertwined with intense philosophy. The course going over the history will then ride into the concept of reality, self, concept of knowledge, ethics and death. The course will serve as a platform to have a comparative analysis of the religions of Asian being diverse and similar. The course assignments will directly involve the students to peep into the religions to answer modern ethical questions. The course will be challenging and therefore push students to think critically about the nature of Asian religion in our complex world today.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The class format will include lectures, films and student presentations. Each student will have three class exams, a term paper and class presentation along with one Asian religious site visit or 3 Discussions. All written work must be typed and double-spaced using a 1" margin all around, a 12-point font letter size and a word count listed at the top of the page. PLEASE NOTE: The instructor will take off points if the above writing assignment requirements are not adhered to. All written work will need to be submitted through the online service www.turnitin.com. Please make sure to sign up or register on the site directly before your first assignment is due.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the semester, students should be able to: (1) Explain various concepts of Asian religions. (2) Analyze the historical development of the Asian Religions. (3) See the ways in which Asian religions and Philosophies are both similar yet different (4) Have a critical eye to evaluate religious philosophical & ritualistic practices of Asian religions. (5) Understand the difference between theory and practice in a religious context

COURSE POLICIES

I. ATTENDANCE and CLASS PARTICIPATION: It is key for students to attend class in order to be successful in this course. If a student arrives late or leaves early, it is BOTH disruptive to the lecturer and students alike. To alleviate this from happening I will count ONE absence for every TWO late arrivals or early departures. Class participation is also important so that students can challenge each other. Dialogue is highly encouraged in this class. Attendance and class participation is vital to a university education and will make up 10% of the course grade.

II. PLAGIARISM: Plagiarism is defined as “literally theft,” and will NOT be tolerated. Plagiarism, in forms some students may not be aware of may include: (1) A written work that is ENTIRELY stolen from another source (2) Using quotations from source without proper citation (3) Paraphrasing from a source without proper citation Students are expected to UNDERSTAND the definition of plagiarism. To view the University Code of Academic Integrity please visit <http://www.fiu.edu/~oabp/misconductweb/2codeofacainteg.htm>. When all else fails; ASK the instructor for help. If you are found guilty you could receive a failing grade for the course which in some cases leads to dismissal from the course and in severe cases from the university.

III. POP QUIZZES: There may be random pop quizzes given on the reading material. Be prepared for class, ESPECIALLY on days that a class discussion on an article is assigned. Quiz grades will be factored into the attendance and class participation grade, which is 10% of the final grade.

IV. LATE PAPERS: Late papers will be downgraded at the discretion of the instructor and is therefore, highly discouraged! No late submissions will be accepted with the commencement of Exam Week.

DESCRIPTION OF CLASS ASSIGNMENTS

I. In Class Exams: There will be three exams in this course. The format will include true/false, matching, essay, and short answer.

II. Term Paper and Class Presentation: For term paper the student is supposed to choose comparative or critical study of any doctrine of the Asian religions taught in the class. The term paper will be a research analysis of the concept from the perspective of the chosen religion. Three to five authentic and academic sources should be used in the paper. Do not refer to wiki. One can use either Chicago, APA or MLA style for the citation. The length of the paper must be in 8-10 pages with single space, 12 font and in A 4 size. The instructor will provide further detail as the semester continues.

III. Power-Point Presentation: At the end of the semester, students are supposed to give one class-presentation based on the research paper or on any topic of their interest through power-point (containing at least ten slides apart from Title and Reference slides). There should be three to five citations in the presentation. If you miss the opportunity of presenting in class as per the schedule, pls contact right away to finalize the presentation date and time.

III. Discussions or Site Visit Report: In it, student has to visit some site pertaining to any one of the religions taught in the class and report about the site in one page with photos then he/she would be graded under this assignment. There is an abundance of Asian related sites around South Florida, this course will require that each student should visit at least one site and report on that. This assignment is to educate the student on the practice level which is equally as important to the theory level discussed in class. Make sure your experience of the site visit is compared with your theoretical learning and understanding. More information can be provided later as per students' queries.
