Expectations of this Course

This is an online course, meaning that most of the course work will be conducted online. Expectations for performance in an online course are the same as for a traditional course; in fact, online courses require a degree of self-motivation, self-discipline, and technology skills that can make them more demanding for some students.

In addition to the completion of writing assignments and exams, the primary requirement for successful completion of this course will be an open mind. Students are expected to exhibit respect to all religious traditions and peoples at all times. Thus, disrespectful or derisive commentary will not be tolerated in this course. Religion is, after all, a very personal and sensitive subject for many.

On the other hand, class participants can expect academic freedom to express their views. Although religion can be personal, this is an academic course taken for college credit and thus students are expected to examine the topics rigorously. Religion shall not be exempt from the scrutiny placed on any and all academic subjects. Students will be responsible for all materials covered in class. Exams may include any and all of the aforementioned materials.

Students are expected to:

- Review the how to get started information located in the course content
- Introduce yourself to the class during the first week by posting a self introduction in the appropriate discussion forum
- Take the practice quiz to ensure that your computer is compatible with Canvas

- Interact online with instructor and peers
- Review and follow the course calendar
- Log in to the course at least 5 times per week
- Respond to discussion boards, blogs and journal postings by the deadline.
- Respond to messages within 3 days or sooner.
- Submit assignments by the corresponding deadline

The instructor will:

- Log in to the course 4 times per week
- Respond to blogs and journal postings within 1 week.
- Respond to messages within 3 days or sooner.
- Grade assignments within 2 weeks of the assignment deadline.

Course Detail

Course Communication

Communication in this course will take place via the Canvas Inbox. Check out the Canvas Conversations Tutorial  (<https://vimeo.com/canvaslms/212en>) or Canvas Guide  (<https://community.canvaslms.com/docs/DOC-10574-4212710325>) to learn how to communicate with your instructor and peers using Announcements, Discussions, and the Inbox. I will respond to all correspondences within 3 days.

Discussion Forum

Keep in mind that your discussion forum postings will likely be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

Assessments

In order to mitigate any issues with your computer and online assessments, it is very important that you take the "Practice Quiz" from each computer you will be using to take your graded quizzes and exams. It is your responsibility to make sure your computer meets the minimum hardware requirements  (<https://online.fiu.edu/student/resources/software-resources.php>).

All assessments will auto-submit when (1) the timer runs out OR (2) the closing date/time is reached, whichever happens first. For example, if a quiz has a closing time of 5:00 pm but the student begins the exam at 4:55 pm, the student will only have 5 minutes to complete the quiz.

Assessments in this course are not compatible with mobile devices and should not be taken through a mobile phone or a tablet. If you need further assistance please contact FIU Online Support Services  (<http://online.fiu.edu/supportservices>).

Quizzes

There will be fully online quizzes covering each section. Your quiz scores will be averaged together for a final quiz score worth 15% of your final grade. All quizzes consist of 10 multiple-choice questions, and each question will be worth 10 points. A quiz will be available from Monday 12:00 am till Monday 12:00 noon of the given week. Once you open a quiz, you will have 20 minutes to complete and submit it. You will have two attempts to take a quiz. The highest score will be counted.

Final Exam

The final exam will be cumulative. The exam will consist of 51 questions. Question distribution will be as follows: 40 multiple choice, 10 true/false, and 1 essay question. The multiple choice questions will be worth 2 points, the true/false questions will be worth 1 point and the essay question will be worth 10 points.

Assignments

Weekly Blogs

Blogs are an open communications tool for students to share their thoughts. Here you can post text, images, links and attachments, open for comments.

1. Within the Module 1 folder you will find information on how to upload a video to YouTube and how to upload a video through Video Everywhere into the Introduce Yourself blog. Students will upload all course videos to their personal YouTube channel and then into the assignment's particular blog due date noted in course schedule of this syllabus:

- Introduce Yourself Video Blog

2. Blogs can be found in the Blog portion of the course menu or within the content area of the course.

- There will be eight course blog topics. The topics will be posted on "Course Blogs" folder in the Course Content. Students must post well thought-out comments based on the required work throughout the semester. Participation is required and represents 15% of your final grade. Both the quantity and the quality of your posts will contribute to your grade. All students are required to participate in all the five topics (at least 200 words). Please see the blog samples and the blog rubric to see what components are expected. Blogs must be posted during the period they are assigned and are due by 11:59 pm on the Monday which ends that particular lesson.

- Once you have composed your original posting, take some time to carefully review other postings within your discussion group. Pick two that are most interesting to you and provide meaningful, detailed, and constructive feedback.
- Keep in mind that your course blog postings will likely be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

Witchcraze Wiki

Students will work together in groups of 4 students on theories of witch hunts. Students must self-enroll in a group during the first week of the module.

Students will be able to sign up for available groups from week 1 - week 3 in the groups section of the course. If you do not choose a group in time, you will be assigned to a group.

For class we have read Anne Llewellyn Barstow's book Witchcraze: A New History of the European Witch Hunts where she writes about the role of gender in the witch hunts. However, historians do not all agree about what were primary causes of the witch hunts in Europe and in the United States. Now you will do your own research and explore other possible theories. In groups of four, students will create wiki pages to explore a theory. Each page will consist of a summary of their theory, problems or criticisms of the theory, examples of the theory and a conclusion. Additionally, wikis should include relevant sources either as a bibliography or in text url links, as well as relevant pictures, videos, and related resources.

Summary of :

1. theory,
2. problems and criticisms of the theory,
3. examples of theory,
4. conclusion

Theories

- For possible theories see: Ten General Historical Theories about the Origins and Causes of the Witch Hunts ⇒ \(http://departments.kings.edu/womens_history/witch/worigin.html\). (Groups may also ask to do another unlisted theory but must get it approved by the professor.)

Important:

- You will need to do research; your textbook and required readings will not have enough information about the topic. You will need to consult a minimum of three outside sources and one must be a book reference. You will also need notes in your paper, and a Bibliography/Works Cited page in MLA style.
- Do not use Wikipedia as an internet source. You may use internet sources, but use only academic sources from the internet. (Academic sources list individual authors, name their sources, and have institutional affiliations.) Points will be deducted for infractions of these rules.
- The wiki tool allows the professor the ability to see each students contributions to the group wiki. Group members are encouraged to equally contribute content to the wiki, as group participation will be factored into your final grade.
- Furthermore, students will have the ability to evaluate their group members' contributions to the final project utilizing the iPeer evaluation tool. This group evaluation assignment is worth 50% of the wiki total grade and must be completed by the wiki due date.

Paganism as World Religion - Student Debate

During week 2 students will be randomly assigned to a group. Each group will consist of 4 students and students within each group must respond to each other. Students will use this group and its corresponding video blog in order to participate in the course debate. Each group will represent a specific debate topic and within the first blog post for each group, students will be able to identify their specific debate position (i.e. pro, or con). Students will be expected to post their debate video on the appropriate date for their assigned position.

Topic-

In this book Pagan Theology: Paganism as World Religion, Michael York argues that Paganism is really the root of religion. He breaks his argument down to three main factors: religion, behavior, and theology. Do you agree with York? Is his argument successful, or does he fall short? Why or why not? Provide examples to support your answer.

Students will choose between:

- Student 1 - Paganism as Religion - Pro or Con
- Student 2 - Paganism as Behavior - Pro or Con
- Student 3 - Paganism as Theology - Pro or Con
- Student 4 - Summary / Conclusion - Which argument was the most persuasive, and why?

Each original video should be around 2 to 3 minutes and no more than 5 minutes in length. After each person has presented their initial video, group members should post short response videos around 1 minute in length.

Students will be expected to review the debate video blogs of other groups after the end of the module. Students will be expected to comment on other groups videos and give suggestions, constructive criticisms, and commendations on their debate videos.

Research Paper

There will be one essay assigned throughout the semester, which is aimed at assisting in the comprehension and synthesis of the concepts presented throughout the course.

There will be four main choices for the paper topic.

1. Extensive Analysis into the Witch Hunts – In this option, you may choose to extend your research from the earlier part of the semester and go in depth into one of theories on the Witch Hunts. Please make sure that your research extends beyond the cursory presentation expected in the group wiki project. (Historical or Sociological Perspectives)
2. Theological Analysis of a Contemporary Religious Group – In this option, you choose a particular group or denomination and analyze their specific beliefs. You can utilize the ideas in Michael York and Christine Hoff Kraemer's books to explore the specific theological beliefs and structures in a particular group. (Theological Perspective)
3. Historical Analysis of a Contemporary Religious Group – In this option, you will choose one Neopagan group and write a historical analysis tracing the group's development. This analysis should clearly illustrate the theological and philosophical changes that occurred over time. Students must clearly address the relationship between the new group, the parent group, and the local society out of which it developed. In other words, what factors, both external and internal, caused the need for the development of the new form of Neopaganism or Witchcraft, and what is distinct about their teachings. (Historical or Sociological Perspectives)

4. Participant Observation –In this option, students will observe and analyze a local coven or group’s ritual. This will probably not be easy to find, but if you can find a group willing to allow you to come, then I wanted to give you this option. Your paper will include background information about the particular group, as well as description and analysis from your experience. (Anthropological Perspective)

You must utilize at least three academic sources.

This essay will be at least 1500-2000 words long (6 pages double-spaced) and will be worth 20% of your grade. This is a formal academic essay and students must cite their sources. MLA is the preferred citation style in Religious Studies.

Submission: Students must submit their essays to the Turnitin Assignment Dropbox

This assignment requires three separate submissions in order to receive full credit for this assignment.

1. The first requires you to submit your complete paper to the “Initial Research Paper Submission” in the Turnitin Assignment Dropbox so that your paper can be sent your classmates for Review. It is imperative that you submit this assignment on-time, since if you do not you will be unable to complete the second portion of this three part assignment (5%).
2. In the second portion of this assignment you must access the “Research Paper Peer-Review” link in the Turnitin Assignment Dropbox area of the course. You will be directed to review three of your classmate’s papers. In order to receive full credit for this portion of the activity you must answer all questions presented to you for each paper (5%).
3. Lastly, you will evaluate your reviewed paper and make any necessary edits to it. You will then submit your final version to the “Research Paper Final Submission” link in the Turnitin Assignment Dropbox area of the course (10%).

Late Papers: Late papers are only accepted under extreme and verifiable conditions. Papers are deducted 1 letter grade per calendar day and are only accepted within the first 3 days late.

Students are responsible for reading their messages and all announcements posted by the instructor. The instructor also reserves the right to make changes to the syllabus by means of announcements or messages with ample time allowed for students to respond and adjust appropriately.

Plagiarism: Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Plagiarism, or attempting to pass off another's work as your own, falls into three different categories:

1. A written work that is entirely stolen from another source;
2. Using quotations from another source without properly citing them; and
3. Paraphrasing from another source without proper citations.

Students are expected to understand the definition of plagiarism. See the University Code of Academic Integrity  (<http://academic.fiu.edu/academicbudget/misconductweb/1acmisconductproc.htm>) if you need further clarification. Offenders will receive a grade of F for the plagiarized assignment, and possibly the course

Important:

You will need to do research; your textbook and required readings will not have enough information about the topic. You will need to consult a minimum of three outside sources and one must be a book reference. You will also need notes in your paper, and a Bibliography/Works Cited page in MLA style.

Do not use Wikipedia as an internet source. You may use internet sources, but use only academic sources from the internet. (Academic sources list individual authors, name their sources, and have institutional affiliations.) Points will be deducted for infractions of these rules.

If you have questions regarding how to cite or what to cite, ask me BEFORE you submit your essay. If you turn in your paper and you "accidentally" plagiarize parts of your essay, you will fail the assignment and possibly the course. Better safe than sorry! To reiterate, ask me before the due date if you are unsure about how to cite your sources.

Students may not submit work from a previous semester or from another class for this assignment or any other assignment in this course. It will be flagged for plagiarism by Turnitin.

Review the detailed Turnitin Instructions.

(<http://online.fiu.edu/html/blackboardlearn/masteremplate/turnitin/>) on how to submit your assignments and how to review the Grademark comments (feedback) from your professor.

PRESENTATIONS

After completion of the paper, students will do a virtual presentation for the class. Class presentations may take a variety of forms, including: videos posted on to YouTube, or a PowerPoint. I am open to other possibilities, but you must obtain permission from me before proceeding. Students are expected to review their classmates' presentations.
