Course Description and Purpose

Why should we care about religion? Why do bad things happen to good people? Is religion irrelevant in our fast-paced technological world? Does the sacred look the same across traditions? How can the study of religion help us understand current events? Is religion a creative or destructive force? How does the study of religion relate to your major? These are just some of the questions that we will explore throughout the semester.

This course is interested in examining the different expressions, practices, and interpretations of religion from an interdisciplinary perspective. Although no particular tradition will be favored, materials from several traditions will be chosen to exemplify thematic topics in the experience of the Sacred. We will also focus on the tenets of religions, dispelling common misconceptions and assumptions and looking into the emergence of new practices among the post-denominational generation.

We will utilize our textbook, videos, internet sources, and discussions to explore these topics. Your grade will include exams, class discussions, and essays to develop your critical thinking skills and writing abilities. This course fulfills the Gordon Rule requirement. Aspects of this course will be facilitated using a team-based learning approach. You will be responsible for preparing for course activities in advance of each session.

Learning Objectives

Upon successful completion of the course, you will be able to:

- Explain the basic history, development, and belief system of various religious traditions.
- Recognize religious themes and concepts found in other cultures.
- Identify the meaning behind religious concepts and symbols.
- Evaluate your own religious views in regards to other cultures and paradigms of religious thought.

- Apply critical thinking to various topics in the field of religious studies.
- Think creatively about religious issues in the contemporary world.
- Perform field research to better understand a particular religious community.

Global Learning Objectives Targeted

- Analyze topics in the field of religious studies from multiple perspectives.
- Assess how global issues and trends are interrelated with the development and practice of religions.
- Demonstrate willingness to think creatively about religious issues in the contemporary world.

Course Prerequisites

There are no prerequisites for this course.

Proctored Exam Policy

This course does not require proctored exams.

Another option is to rent the textbook, which is significantly less expensive, or to purchase a used version of the textbook. We'll be referring to the 6th edition so, if you choose another edition, it's your responsibility to figure out how the textbooks differ so that you can keep up. PDF copies of the first three chapters will be provided so that you have a chance to get the book.

Course Modality & Expectations

This course will be taught in hybrid mode. In a hybrid class, the face-to-face meeting time is reduced by 50%. The other 50% of the class takes place outside of the classroom, whether online, in the field, in the community, or some place else. It is important to note that this out-of-class “meeting time” is in addition to the homework and preparation that are assigned in all classes regardless of format. In a hybrid course, you will need to self-regulate your out-of-class time so that you can keep up with both the face-to-face and out-of-class assignments and preparation. Some tasks must be completed prior to class and some after class. Paying attention to how the in- and out-of-class materials are connected is important.

You are responsible for carefully reading the syllabus and weekly calendar, meeting deadlines as posted, and submitting mature, thoughtful work. Some of this material may be new, personal, or controversial, so please maintain an open-minded and considerate attitude, allowing others time to reflect and communicate. The online portion of the class is required and constitutes the online attendance. Please review additional expectations below.

Course Communication

Communication in this course will take place via the Inbox. Check out the Canvas Conversations Tutorial  (<https://vimeo.com/canvaslms/212en>) to learn how to communicate with your instructor and peers using Announcements, Discussions, and the Inbox. At some points in the semester, my inbox gets quite full. If you message me and don't hear back from me within two business days, please send a follow-up message. I will appreciate the gentle reminder.

As a student in this course, you are expected to:

- Review the Getting Started information located in the Modules.
- Introduce yourself to the class during the first week in the appropriate discussion forum.
- Take the Practice Quiz to ensure that your computer is compatible with Canvas.
- Interact online with instructor and peers.

- Log in to the course at least 3-4 times per week, if not daily.
- Respond to Canvas Messages within 1 day.
- Check regularly for any announcements.

I, the professor, will:

- Log in to the course at least 6 days per week.
- Respond to Canvas Messages within 1 day when possible.
- Respond to General Discussion posts within 2 days.
- Provide feedback on assignments within 7 days of submission.
- Provide an opportunity for you to give individual and group feedback as to how you think your group is doing at the midway point.
- Generally, I send messages with descriptive subject lines and any updates or pertinent class information, but, because so many of us have adapted to being online for all of our classes and sometimes even our work, I will try and stick to announcements unless something is urgent. That way, you have somewhere to look without getting overwhelmed by messages from all of your classes.

Attendance & Participation

Since we only have six in-person sessions, you are expected to do your best to attend every session, arrive on time, and stay for the duration of the class. Attendance will be taken during each session. Arriving late, leaving early, or stepping out of the class for long periods of time may incur an absence penalty. Please refrain from texting and emailing in class. Please inform me immediately if a situation develops that will impact your performance or attendance.

Participation includes reading for class, contributing to discussions, and being attentive to lectures and student presentations. Participation also includes introducing yourself in the online forum.

Discussions

Film Discussions

You are required to participate in three online discussions about historical films, documentaries, and particular concepts or issues covered in the course. You will also have one (1) film discussion as a make-up option. There may be some substitutions below based on current library availability. I never want you to have to spend money to see one of the films. It is possible that we may substitute an article for one or more of the films depending on availability.

- The Mission (1986 with Robert De Niro)
- Luther (2003 with Joseph Fiennes)
- Selma (2014 with David Oyelowo)

Make-up Discussion (1 of the following 3)

- Malcolm X (1992 with Denzel Washington),
- Gandhi (1982 with Ben Kingsley), or
- The Ten Commandments (1956, Cecil B. DeMille)

The films will not be shown in class; you are responsible for watching the films on your own time as part of the hybrid online work. The required films will be available on library reserve or through a shared link.

Video Discussions

We will also be using some intriguing videos as part of four short video-discussions.

Discussion Posting Guidelines

Each discussion (film or video) requires that you answer the discussion prompt and then comment on a peer's post. Discussion prompts will generally open on Monday the week they are assigned and close on Saturday at 11:59 pm that same week. You must answer the prompt early enough in the week (at least by Thursday) to allow others the opportunity to comment on your post before the due date. See discussion forums for detailed instructions. Please keep in mind that you are responding in an academic forum so you want to pay attention to grammar and punctuation. I know that some of you may post from your phones so just keep in mind that these are not texts.

Discussion Grading Guidelines

- Response to prompt (80%): post length (minimum 300 words), content, grammar, and punctuation
- Reply to peer (20%): should be at least 50 words or 3 complete sentences

Keep in mind that your discussion forum postings will be seen by other members of the course. Care should be taken when determining what to post.

Essays

As this is a Gordon Rule course, you are required to complete a certain number of major writing assignments. The FIU Writing Center (<https://case.fiu.edu/writingcenter/>) is a great source for help and feedback as you are working on your essays. The assignment links will also include links to MLA resources in case you are not familiar with that particular citation style.

Writing Assignments	Notes
Writing Assignment 1	Virtual Pilgrimage . For this writing assignment, you will need to visit three of the nine provided virtual sites and write an insightful essay that demonstrates a general understanding of the importance of each of the sites within its religious tradition (1,500 – 1,800 words, double-spaced, MLA formatting). Detailed instructions will be provided in the assignment link. This assignment will include both a draft and a final version so that you can get feedback and receive the best grade possible on your final. The draft will be part of your total grade for the assignment.

Writing Assignment 2	Topic Essay. This essay will be a topic of your choice related to religion - hopefully something fun that you would like to explore. The topic will be approved by the professor and you must utilize at least one scholarly or academic source. Other additional sources are fine, but the one scholarly source is a must. This essay is 1,200 - 1,500 words and should also be double-spaced and use MLA formatting, which includes a works cited page. This assignment will also include both a draft and a final version so that you can get feedback and receive the best grade possible on the final version. The draft will be part of your total grade for the assignment.

Essay General Guidelines

- Source material must be cited correctly using MLA Style (<https://fiu.instructure.com/courses/137660/pages/mla-formatting>), and long quotes should be avoided.
- Papers need to be submitted in Canvas through Turnitin. Be sure to review the detailed Turnitin Instructions (<https://fiu.instructure.com/courses/137660/pages/how-to-submit-a-turnitin-assignment>) on how to submit your assignments and how to review the Grademark comments (feedback) from me.
- Please do NOT send any writing assignments as email or message attachments. All writing assignments must be submitted in the proper drop box in Canvas; there are no exceptions.
- Papers with an originality score of over 35% similarity in Turnitin will be subject to additional scrutiny and may incur additional penalties, up to and including receiving an F (0 points).
- Late papers may be accepted with a legitimate excuse and a 10% penalty for late submission. After more than two weeks, papers will either be refused, or will be discounted by fifty percent at the professor's discretion.
- Please review the common grammar mistakes (<https://fiu.instructure.com/courses/137660/files/21554413?wrap=1>) in case they are helpful.

Group Discussion

You will have two group assignments over the course of the semester. The first one is to lead a class discussion on a topic related to course readings. Each group will be responsible for asking questions about a particular chapter and helping to lead the conversation on that chapter. You are welcome to use a kahoot or any similar tool as part of the discussion. You are encouraged to be creative and informative. We all have something unique to bring to the class so your own experiences can definitely inform our conversations.

Group Discussion General Guidelines

- Each group member should participate in the class discussion itself in some way.

- As a group, you are responsible for signing up for discussion slots, which will be done in one of the early classes this semester.
- If you miss your discussion slot and there is no other available slot, you will receive 0 points for the presentation.

Group discussions are evaluated based on content, creativity, and cooperation among group members. Further assignment details will be discussed during class.

Group Religion Project

This is your second group assignment and is a lot of fun. Each group will collaborate to design its own sect, church community, or religion. The following components of the sect/church/religion must be thought out and articulated in writing: definition, myth, rituals, scriptures, community practices, deity(ies), cosmogony, the human dilemma, and paths of salvation.

The project will be graded on organization, creativity, and clarity of understanding the key concepts from each chapter and will cover chapters 3 through 13. This assignment is due online, here in Canvas, and will be presented in class. Further assignment details will be provided in Canvas and discussed during class sessions.

Weekly Chapter Quizzes

There are 12 weekly chapter quizzes (one quiz per textbook chapter). The lowest two grades from the quizzes will be dropped. Please review the specifics for each quiz below:

- The summer session offers some scheduling challenges so please keep an eye on the weekly calendar to be clear about when quizzes are due). It will always be at 11:59 pm EST on the day they are due.
- 10 multiple-choice and true/false questions
- 15 minutes to complete
- Total score is available immediately upon submission; answers feedback is available in My Grades after quiz due date

In order to mitigate any issues with your computer and online assessments, it is very important that you take the Practice Quiz from each computer you will be using to take your graded quizzes and exams.

Assessments in this course are not compatible with mobile devices and should not be taken through a mobile phone or a tablet. If you need further assistance please contact FIU Canvas Help Center (<http://online.fiu.edu/supportservices>).

In-Class Gamble Assignment

These assignments will be an opportunity for you to test your knowledge of the material before taking the online quizzes. One take will be as an individual and the other take as a group. As a class, you get to decide how much each of the takes is worth although neither take can be less than 50% of the total.

Exams

The Midterm and Final Exams will be available online during their respective scheduled dates. Please review the specifics for each exam below. I am fully confident that you can do well on both of these exams if you use the quizzes and tools that we will discuss in class in order to prepare.

Midterm Exam

- Covers the first half of the course, from Chapter 1 through Chapter 6.
- Administered online in Canvas
- Sixty-five minutes allowed to complete
- Total score is available immediately upon submission

Final Exam

- Covers the second half of the course, from Chapter 7 through Chapter 13
- Administered online in Canvas
- Sixty-five minutes allowed to complete
- Total score is available immediately upon submission

Students who miss the exam and request make-ups must provide valid documentation for appropriate emergencies. "Forgetting" is not an excuse.

Extra Credit

Extra-Credit Film Review

Review a movie and write a 300-word forum post describing the role that religion plays in the story or event. Focus on religious symbols, rituals, myths or the ways in which religious beliefs or practices influence the plot or meaning of the movie. Do not tell the whole story of the movie, but just enough so that your points are clear. The movie selection must be approved by the instructor.

Extra-Credit Quiz 13

Quiz 13 on Salvation will be available for extra-credit.

Extra-Credit if I know Your Name

Yes, that's right. You will get extra-credit if I can connect your name to your face. It's relatively easy to learn names and faces but connecting the two can be a challenge, especially when a professor has several large classes. That being said, it's very important to me to make the connection so, if you help me do it, you'll get extra-credit. This is a little more challenging in our new pandemic-masked world, but let's see how it goes!

Everybody Knows Your Name \(https://youtu.be/h-mi0r0LpXo\)

Extra-Credit

Other extra-credit opportunities may be shared as the semester progresses.

Grading

I provide multiple opportunities for you to receive feedback on your performance throughout the course in order to give you opportunities to see how you are doing and so you can identify places where you need to apply more effort or new strategies along the way. My hope is that all of you will develop the knowledge and skills that you need to do well in this course.
