Course Description: This course will introduce the student to the basics of New Testament Greek. We will study the alphabet and sounds of the Greek language, survey grammatical forms and sentence structure, and develop a solid vocabulary consisting of commonly used words. Plenty of time will be devoted to translating actual sentences and later whole passages from Greek into English. Along with this, we will also discuss the best techniques of translating Greek into English and explore how knowledge of Greek gives new insight into the reading of the New Testament.

Grading. The grading for this course will be as follows:

Midterm Exam	20%
Final Exam	20%
Vocabulary Quizzes	20%
Attendance and Participation	40%

Midterm and Final Examinations: The midterm and final exams will be take home examinations consisting of sentences in Greek that are to be translated into English. They are not open book examinations, though I will allow you to use a dictionary for vocabulary. If you don't have separate dictionary you can use the section at the back of your book, but you cannot look at the lessons in the book.

Quizzes: The first class each week will begin with a vocabulary exam with 10 words being chosen from the vocabulary lists in the lessons being studied that particular week. Your two lowest scores from the semester will be dropped. At the end of the semester, the scores from the 12 best tests will be added and the grading scale will be as follows:

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	below 60

Attendance and Participation: Attendance and participation is very important in this class and the grade is weighted accordingly. You must come to class and come prepared. In each session we will have some time for discussion, but a large part of our time will be devoted to translating the sentences from each lesson. This we will do by each student taking a turn. No one will be perfect in being able to translate every sentence, but you must try.

Academic Conduct: Florida International University is a community dedicated to generating and imparting knowledge through excellent teaching and research, the rigorous and respectful exchange of ideas, and community service.
