What is this Course about?

This course will look into a pantheon of interdisciplinary thinkers such as Marx, Jung, and Weber to analyze salient theories about the patterns and paradoxes of sacred experiences across religions. We will explore how communities from various times and geographies express their sacred experiences through symbols, myths, scriptures, time, and space and how these are accessed and transformed through diverse interpretations. Our fundamental aim will be to discover the intrinsic connection between the sacred and our notions of self, nature, society, reality, and so on.

Ultimately, this course will prepare you to formulate your own theoretical questions and methodology to create and apply new knowledge in any field of study. It will also provide you with the necessary tools to guide your individual quest. Welcome!

Why Should I Care about Religion?

Why do I struggle to lead a meaningful life? How do I determine what makes life worth it in the face of suffering and evil? Is religion irrelevant in our fast-paced technological world? Does the sacred look the same across traditions? Is religion a creative or destructive force? These are just some of the questions that we will explore throughout the semester.

This course is interested in examining the different expressions, practices and interpretations of religion from an interdisciplinary perspective. Although no particular religion will be favored, materials from several religions will be chosen to exemplify thematic topics in the experience of the Sacred. We will also focus on the tenets of religions, dispelling common misconceptions and assumptions and looking into the emergence of new practices among the post-denominational generation.

How can this course help you advance in your career?

You do not need to be personally religious, majoring in religious studies, or in a field within humanities to benefit from this course. Whatever your academic field is, this course will train you to make important connections between your career and the world of the sacred and the profane. You will be able to understand the complexity of the definitions of religion and secularization, and the role religion plays in local and international affairs.

Religious illiteracy can greatly impact our ability to understand personal and social motivations behind financial decisions, political engagement, science and technological advancement, environmental and migration policies, family planning, diet and food production, gender relations, war and terrorist attacks, and more. Whether you notice or not, religion is a universal phenomenon that continues to transform and be transformed by our societies. Religion greatly influences one's epistemology, or the way they deal with what is true or false, as well as the way they look at the world. If we fail to understand religion & secularization, we may fail to understand people.

Our approach is interdisciplinary, which means you will be critically reflecting from many fields of study such as philosophy, psychology, cultural studies, history, economics, gender studies, among others. This enhances your ability to think critically, communicate effectively, respond sensitively, collaborate with others and creatively resolve conflict.

II. Course Objectives, Goals, & Plagiarism Statement

Course Objectives:

This course satisfies the University Core Curriculum for Humanities Group Two (FIU required) as supported by the following learning outcomes for our course:

1. Identify key thinkers such as Marx, Jung, and Weber and their interdisciplinary theories about the patterns and paradoxes of sacred experiences across traditions
2. Classify and utilize various approaches to the study of religion, including but not limited to ethnographic, psychological, sociological, ethical, phenomenological, and so on.

3. Compare and contrast the key underlying beliefs and principles of the major Eastern, Western, indigenous and shamanic religions.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of the evolution and movement of religious beliefs from ancient to contemporary times.
5. Speak intelligently about the relationship between religion and other cultural phenomena such as art, literature, music, film, and so on.
6. Demonstrate an increased empathetic awareness of religious diversity and differences.
7. Correctly distinguish between primary vs secondary sources, insider/ideological vs outsider/academic sources, and scholarly vs journalistic sources.

Goals

- Foster tolerance of and appreciation for differences in human culture and diverse religious expressions.
- Develop fluency in ancient and contemporary religious history.
- Expand ability to apply different methodologies to the study of religion.
- Create an atmosphere of self-exploration and self-understanding.
- Nurture creative and critical thinking.
- Identify the relevance of studying religion to contemporary life, human thought, and professional development

Global Learning Objectives

As a Global Learning course, students will meet the following objectives through text readings, assignments, and class discussions:

1. Students will be able to analyze topics in the field of religious studies from multiple perspectives.
2. Students will be able to assess how global issues and trends are interrelated with the development and practice of religions
3. Students will be able to demonstrate willingness to think creatively about religious issues in the contemporary world.

Statement on Plagiarism

You are expected to understand the definition of plagiarism. See the University Code of Academic Integrity if you need further clarification. Plagiarism will not be tolerated. Plagiarism, or attempting to pass off another's work as your own, falls into three different categories:

1. A written work that is entirely or partially stolen from another source;
2. Using quotations from another source without properly citing them; and
3. Paraphrasing from another source without proper citations.

Students are expected to understand the definition of plagiarism. See the University Code of Academic Integrity at <http://www.fiu.edu/~oabp/misconductweb/2codeofacainteg.htm> if you need further clarification. Offenders will receive a grade of F (0 points) for the plagiarized assignment, and possibly for the course. Please be aware: Previously submitted papers are not allowed, even if it is your own work and even if you are retaking this class. You may not “reuse” papers.

COVID MAKEUP POLICY

With a positive COVID test you are granted a maximum of 3 additional absences.

Late Assignment Policy

I do accept late assignments, however, if you turn in late work the highest grade you can get for that assignment is an 75%. This even includes first drafts that are 'replaced' by final draft grades. No, you cannot turn in all of your assignments at the end of this course I will not accept assignments more than 10 days after the due date.

No assignments will be accepted after FRIDAY JUNE 17 with the exception of the final exam. No exceptions.

IV. Assessment Descriptions

A. Essays

Gordon Rule Requirement

As this is a Gordon Rule course, students will be required to write a minimum of two major assignments. The essays must have a thesis, and adequately support that thesis. The essays must be organized clearly and logically. Each paper will be 1,200 words and will be submitted through Turnitin. All source material must be cited correctly using Chicago style formatting. Please be aware that papers with an originality score of over 35% similarity will be subject to additional scrutiny and may incur additional penalties, up to and including receiving an F (0 points). Please do NOT send any writing assignments as email or message attachments! All writing assignments must be submitted in the proper drop box in Canvas; there are no exceptions. Late papers may be accepted with a legitimate excuse and the maximum score will be 75%.

1. Essay 1: Religious Site Visit

For this essay, you will need to visit a religious site from a religious tradition that is not your own and write a report on it. This paper must have a thesis. Detailed assignment instructions and format are provided in the course. You will be revising this essay. People plagiarize all the time on this assignment, if you do, you will fail the course. In order to complete the first essay, you must select a religious site and provide proof that you were there. A picture with you at the site is sufficient, if you happen to attend a physical service.

- First Draft: You must submit a 1,200-word first draft. The purpose of this first draft is to give you feedback and make you a better writer.
 - You need to submit a picture of yourself at the site for credit.
Please attach photo to submission at end of word doc.
- Final Draft: After my feedback on first draft the final draft must be at least 1,200 words long and cover 3 elements of the religion or site you are visiting.
 - You need to submit a picture of yourself at the site for credit.
Please attach photo to submission at end of word doc.

2. Essay 2: Personal Analysis

For this essay, you will analyze yourself using the theoretical frameworks for analysis presented in this class. The purpose of this assignment is to assess whether you understand the basic concepts of the study of religion through naming what is sacred in your life as the thesis. Support the 'thesis' by describing & defending your chosen sacred value meaning against the backdrop of suffering & evil, and the human problem. Detailed assignment instructions and format are provided in the course.

- First Draft: You must submit a 1,200-word first draft. The purpose of this first draft is to give you feedback and make you a better writer.
- Final Draft: After my feedback on first draft the final draft must be at least 1,200 words long and address the human problem and the problem of evil.

C. Discussions

There will be a total of 8 discussions. The discussions will take two forms. The first form will be portions of your essays so that they can be revised & edited by me. The second form will be posting in response to a question posited in the Lectures. These will be responded to by your classmates.

- The discussions will short and are here to aid you with your papers.
 - 4 of the discussions are submitting elements of your essays so they can be edited. This helps you write more efficiently & effectively while still meeting Gordon Rule requirements, saving you time and helping your grade.
 - The other 4 discussions are responses to lectures and current events. They must be at least 300 words. You will be required to respond to 2 other classmates posts with responses of at least 75 words.
- All discussions must be thesis based, so they must have one clear idea throughout the post.

D. Exams

The Midterm Exam and Final Exam will be available online during their respective scheduled dates. Each exam is worth 8.75% of the final grade, for a total of 17.5% of the final grade.

Format: multiple-choice and true/false questions based on assigned readings.

No late submissions will be accepted.

E. Participation/Attendance

Your attendance will be monitored and makes up 15% of the final grade of the course. If you are not in class (physically or virtually depending on circumstance), your grade will be affected. You will also be lacking critical information to complete the assignments.

Everyone gets 2 days they can miss. Don't abuse them.

This class uses FIU Check-In. If I catch you abusing the system and leaving early or being checked in to our course when you are not physically present, I will lower your grade in the course by one full letter grade. C will become a D, an A- will become a B-. If I catch you doing this twice you will automatically fail the class.

Attendance will be calculated at the end of the semester, if I calculate it before hand, it will not calculate correctly.

F. Extra Credit Opportunities

Extra credit can account for up to 5% of your final grade. You get one opportunity to do this. It must be submitted on Canvas, not emailed to me.

1. Proof that you went to the writing center. You must go and have them help you write one of your essays. You automatically get 5% for doing this.

Make the appointment early and show up.

V. Grading Scale

Letter	Range (%)	Letter	Range (%)	Letter	Range (%)
A	95 or above	B	83 - 86	C	70 - 76
A-	90 - 94	B-	80 - 82	D	60 - 69

VII. OMNICRON SPIKE AMMENDUM

As cases and hospitalizations due to the Omicron variant continue to increase in our community, we must unite and take necessary steps to prevent further spread.

A. Daily and before arriving to campus, complete the P3 app. If you are not given the green check mark to enter campus, then stay home, and contact me by email by forwarding your P3 app email notification advising you to stay home.

B. Please check your FIU email account and your Canvas course at least once a day. Email and Canvas are the official ways for the university, and your professors, to contact you.

C. If you do not feel well and/or have tested positive for COVID-19, please do not come to class, immediately complete the P3 app to notify the COVID Response Team and contact me by email by forwarding your P3 app email notification as soon as you can. In order to receive an excused absence for P3 failure/COVID-19, you must complete the P3 app and forward the email notification. If directed to stay home by the P3 app, that email notification will serve as your excused absence when you forward it to me. The make-up policies are outlined in this syllabus.

If you have COVID with legitimate proof, the penalty for late assignments will be waived for 15 days. You will be responsible for turning in your assignment with proof attached. You will be responsible for letting the instructor know. If this is the final essay and you are out at the end of the semester a grade of I can be given at the discretion of the instructor.

D. FIU is following current CDC Guidance. Please refer to the link where you can access their most current information.

E. Please take every precaution to keep yourself and others healthy. Per CDC guidelines, you are encouraged to get vaccinated and strongly advised to wear a mask indoors and in public including all FIU facilities.

F. Missing excessive days may lead to failing a class or a grade of incomplete.

G. For me to assist you in achieving your goals, it is important for you to contact me as soon as you experience any events that might disrupt your course participation. For up-to-date information about COVID-19, please see the repopulation.fiu.edu FAQs.

H. Please be advised that classes may be audio and visually recorded and/or subject to course capture for future access by students in this course. Your attendance/participation in this course constitutes consent to such recordings, which will only be used for educational purposes by students in the course and securely stored in University systems. If there is a concern regarding the recording and use of such recording, please contact FERPA@fiu.edu.
